Sir:

The drawings for the above patent application should be amended as described below.

In Fig. 6d, reference symbol "74" should be added to the curved region covering the right-most circle in the left-most group of five circles, and reference symbol "74" should similarly be added to the curved region covering the right-most circle in the right-most group of five circles.

In Fig. 6e, reference symbol "74" should be added to the curved region directly covering the right-most circle in the left-most group of five circles.

In Fig. 11, the horizontal section line near the middle of the figure should be deleted.

In Fig. 13e, reference symbol "64" should be added to the bottom region.

Enclosed are copies of the relevant drawing sheets in which the foregoing changes are indicated in red.
